Hunter, which has occupied the attention of the Dis-Local Nor has 15 cents per line each insertion. trict Court of Brazes county for several days past, was concluded to-day. The jury failed to agree on a verdict, and the case goes over to the next term of the court. The State was represented by six able resident attorneys, and Col. P. D. Page, also a lawyer of this city, and Capt. George Washington, of Knoxville, Tennessee, appeared for the defense. On the latter named gentlemen devolved the enormous burden of sustaining the defense in the face of strong local prejudice and other disadvantages. The result of that Memphis and Charleston and Nashville and would have to be seen to be appreclated, and your poor correspondent can give you but a faint idea of its

Before the conclusion of that very impressive discourse the whole atmosphere underwent a radical change; sobs burst from the hearts of many unused to weep, strong men bowed their heads, and even the negroes grouped together in the remotest corner of that room indulged in similar expressions of their sympathy for the defendant. And had it been left to a vote of that crowd they would have acquitted the prisoner. At the conclusion of that speech there was a spontaneous and unconrollable burst of applause all over the court room, a thing unheard of in this part of the country. But, alas! the jury mu-t decide the fate of the accused. A jusy of twelve honest (?) men, sworn to make up their verdict to the evidence and the law, could not agree, and so said.

Wash. idgton, that he had not the selecting of that jury; it devolved on one who it was presumed knew the citizens of FREE FROM SLATE AND ALL this town and county, and their feelings in this matter. Capt. Washington has won a host of friends here by his efforts made in behalf of young Crozier, and the reception that will be endered him on his return here next fall will be of the warmest and heartiest. I will add that his speech is pronounced by the oldest and best citizens of Bryan to have been by far the ablest and strongest ever made at this Yours, &c.,

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever. It restores gray or faded hair to its vouthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

THE KNOXVILLE CHRONICLE FOR 1879.

Subscrib- for a Good, Reliable News

The DAILY CHRONICLE, and WEEKLY WHIG AND CHRONICLE, will be kept up during the year 1879 to their usual high standard. By enterprise, accurateness, and close attention to the wants of our readers, we hope to merit a continuation of the liberal patronage heretofore extended these journals. Nearly nine years ago, when there was not a Republican daily in the State, and only two or three in the South, we commenced the publication of the CHRONICLE. In all these years we have battled for Republican principles, and see no reason to change our course now. Hence we shall continue to publish truthful, reliable Republican journal, not the organ of any man or clique, but the outspoken and fearless advocate of principles, measures and men, best calculated to promote the welfare of the country and the Republican party.

We will endeavor to make our agricultural columns worth more to farmers than our subscription price.

As a newspaper our publications shall not be excelled in the State. In addition to our telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the world, our readers shall have the benefit of correspondence and every other means through which reliable information is obtained,

Each number of the paper will contain selections made with special reference to the home circle. We will continue to avoid everything calculated to contaminate, and will publish a paper that may be taken THE SORCERER, By Gilbert & Sullivan. 1.00. without question within the sacred H. M. S. We call upon all persons interested in the publication of our independent, fearless, reliable Republican journal to come to our aid and assist in extending the circulation of the DAILY CHRONICLE and

WEEKLY WHIG AND CHRONICLE. In view of the financial pressure upon the country and the general reduction of values, we have decided to reduce the price of the WEEKLQ WHIG AND CHRONICLE to suit the times. In the future we will send our weekly paper to subscribers on the following .

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY Conducted by J. C. Holland.

The American edition of this periodical is MORE THAN 70,000 MONTHLY, And it has a larger circulation in England than any other American magazine. Every number contains about one bundred and fifty pages, and from fifty to seventy-five original wood-cut illustrations. Announcements for 1879:

Among the attractions for the coming ear are the following: "HAWORTH'S," a serial novel, by Mrs Frances Hodgson Burnet, author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's." The scene of Mrs Burnett's new novel is laid in Lancashire; the hero is a young inventor of Amarican birth "Haworth's" is the longest story Mrs Burnett has yet written. It will run through twelve numbers of the Monthly, beginning with November, 1878 and will be profusely illustrated. FALCONBERG, a serial novel, by H. H. Boyesen auther of "Gunnar," Man who Lost his Name," &c. In this romance, the author graphically describes the peculiarities of Norse immigrant life in a Western settlement. A STORY OF NEW ORLEANS, by George W. Cable, to be begun on the conclusion of "Falconberg." This story will exhibit the state of society in C.col Louisiana about the years 1803-4-5, the time of the Cession, and a period bearing a remarkable likeness to the present Reconstruction pe-
